Special to The Evening World.) NEWPORT, July 23.—Robert J. Collier and Miss Sarah Van Alen will be married on Saturday. Miss Van Alen will marry with the consent of her father, James J. Van Alen, and of her grand-mother, Mrs. William Astor.

Until to-day James J. Van Alen has persistently denied that his daughter intended marrying Mr. Collier, but when he found that the marriage was to take place to-morrow with or without his consent he decided to make the best of it, and to-day announced that the marriage could take place on next Saturday.

It was the intention of Mr. Collier and Miss Van Alen to be married to-morrow, but at the earnest request of the parties interested in the Oslrichs-Martin wedding it was postponed until Saturday. In consideration of the postponement Mr. Van Alen gave his consent. Both Mr. Van Alen and Mrs. Astor will be present at the ceremony.

At the Van Alea nome no preparation. have been made for the wedding. Until to-day it has been denied at Wakehurst that any member of the Van Alen famfly contemplated marriage. Miss Van Alen, it is reported, will become a Roman Catholic.

Collicr Announced Wedding.

"Mr. Martin and I are rivals in matri mony, but there is no trouble between us. It is true that I shall marry Miss Van Alen this week," said "Bobby" Colier to the assembled guests, of which he was in the place of honor, on the right hand of Peter D. Martin, at the latter's bachelor dinner, and he was responding to a toast.

To his personal friends Mr. Collie said that his wedding would be this week, but not to-morrow, as he was going to attend the wedding of his friend, ePter Martin, to-morrow.

James J. Van Alen is, as everybody knows, an aristocrat of aristocrats. The Collier fortune is of too recent accumulation for him to execut its recent accumulation for him to execut accumulation for
